U.S. AUTHORIZATION TO TRAVEL: Carlson Maritime Travel can only make arrangements on behalf of individuals authorized to travel by rules of the Office of Foreign Assets Control - U.S. Department of the Treasury. This Office authorizes certain persons to travel by issuance of "specific license" as well as "general license" under one of the 12 approved categories without further need to obtain permission by OFAC.

VISA INFORMATION: All travelers must have a valid passport with at least six months' expiration and a Cuban visa. You are responsible for having proper documentation on your person to enter Cuba as well as to re-enter the United States. For travel with Carlson Maritime Travel, we will assist in obtaining your Cuban visa if you were born in the U.S.

If you are holding a passport from a foreign country, green card, visa, multiple entry visa, or special use passports, you are solely responsible for understanding the limitations imposed for re-entry to the United States. CMT cannot be held responsible for any participant who is refused service by the carrier for entry into Cuba because of a restricted passport or visa. In the event a participant is refused entry to Cuba because of visa or passport issues or denial of visa by the Cuban government, applicable cancellation penalties apply.

Very Important: persons born in Cuba, no matter what your current citizenship, will require additional documentation
Please contact the Cuban Embassy or visa processor. HE-11

RESPONSIBILITIES

Carlson Maritime Travel, and its employees, shareholders, officers, directors, successors, agents, and assigns, neither own nor operate any person or entity which is to, or does, provide goods or services for these trips or tours. Because Carlson Maritime Travel does not maintain any control over the personnel, equipment, or operations of these suppliers, CMT assumes no responsibility for and cannot be held liable for any personal injury, death, property damage, or other loss, accident, delay, inconvenience, or irregularity which may be occasioned by reason of (1) any wrongful, negligent, willful, or unauthorized acts or omissions on the part of any of the tour suppliers, or other employees of agents, (2) any defect in or failure of any vehicle, equipment, instrument owned, operated or otherwise by any of these suppliers, or (3) any wrongful, willful, or negligent act or omissions on any part of any other party not under the supervision or control of the Operator (4) sickness, weather, strikes, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, acts of nature, local laws or other such causes. All services and accommodations are subject to the laws and regulations of the country in which they are provided. CMT is not responsible for any baggage or personal effects of any individual participating in the trips arranged by CMT. Individual travelers are responsible for purchasing a travel insurance policy, if desired, that will cover some of the expenses associated with the loss of luggage or personal effects. The tickets, vouchers, and other travel documents for the services of these contractors are subject to all terms and conditions of the respective suppliers (some of them may limit or exclude the supplier's liability). Under no circumstances is CMT to be construed as a carrier under contract for safe carriage of the passenger or his or her baggage and belongings.
